Join us in London, England for the 1st International Conference on Transport & Health. This innovative event will combine presentations of submitted work with cross-disciplinary workshops lead by teams of transport and public health professionals on the following hot topic areas:

- Health & Environmental Impact Assessment
- Global Road Safety & Injury Prevention
- Public Involvement (Public Meetings & Social Media)
- Active Transport (Walking & Bicycling)
- Place Making Across the Life Course
- Air Quality and Cumulative Exposure
- Urban & Rural Planning (Multi-Modal Interconnectivity)
- Environmental Justice & Social Equity
- Economics and Long-Term Sustainability
- Health in all Policies

Accepted researcher and practitioner abstract presentations facilitate lessons learned and best practices in the field. Professional networking opportunities will be integrated as part of the conference.
